

OLD WORLD CULTURE

To Whomsoever it may concern

Old World Culture's annual Old World Theatre Festival is recognized as one of the largest theatre festivals in India. Every year, our diligent Programmes Team curates the cream of the crop from the national and international theatre community and lines up the best plays to be showcased in front of discerning patrons.

The Legend of Ila was selected by our festival curators for its innovative format, its mix of hauntingly beautiful music and dramatic storytelling, the sheer virtuosity of its performers, and for its fascinating twist on Indian mythological concerns to address contemporary issues of gender and identity. The show was presented at the 2018 edition of our festival to great audience acclaim, and proved to be among the most unique and memorable presentations of the line-up.

The Legend of Ila is a most remarkable production, presented by a wonderfully talented and accomplished team. We wish them all the best, and hope that they continue to enthrall audiences all over the world with this delightful show.

Vidyun Singh
Creative Head- Old World Culture